CVE PTA President's Message

Dear parents,

No more snow! Let's hope spring is around the bend and all this snow will be a distant memory. There are some fun PTA events coming up soon bringing some fun back into these dreary winter days. They include Family Night at Baltimore's Best, Circus discount tickets, Spring fair with a Multicultural Flair, and teacher appreciation week. More details to come soon!

How happy are you with the way things are running this year with your PTA? We are only as successful and productive as our volunteers, committee chairs & board members weeks of winter and cold weather with energetic children, pick up a copy of the Baltimore's Child Magazine or log onto their website www.baltimoreschild.com for fun and creative events at local establishments. In addition, there are usually open/free plays at area children's gyms, Bouncy playzones, laser tag venues and rock climbing locations, just to name a few. Many area centers are offering drop in plays, discounts, and 2 for 1 deals to bring in patrons during slower times. Of course your local library (www.bcpl.info) is always available with many activities, crafts and events planned on weekends.

Don't forget to set your clocks forward
